

Year 6 celebrates individuality and diversity by wearing interesting and cool socks for 'Funky Sock Friday' each week. Responding to Student Voice in our class meetings, students decided to introduce this exciting idea to acknowledge differences and show respect and kindness within our community.

